A JOURNEY TO OUR FUTURE™

Presented in collaboration with NASA

Produced by Evergreen Exhibitions

EXHIBITION COLLABORATORS

NATIONAL AERONAUTICS AND SPACE ADMINISTRATION (NASA)

Since its inception in 1958, NASA has accomplished many scientific and technological feats in air and space. NASA technology has also been adapted for many non-aerospace uses by the private sector. NASA remains a leading force in scientific research and in stimulating public interest in aerospace exploration, as well as science and technology in general. Perhaps more importantly, our exploration of space has taught us to view the Earth, ourselves, and the universe in a new way. While the tremendous technical and scientific accomplishments of NASA demonstrate vividly that humans can achieve previously inconceivable feats, we also are humbled by the realization that Earth is just a tiny "blue marble" in the cosmos. #### SACRAMENTO CONVENTION & VISITORS BUREAU

The Sacramento Convention & Visitors Bureau (SCVB) is a non-profit, marketing organization responsible for promoting the Sacramento region as convention/meeting, group travel, leisure travel, and film production destination. Through targeted marketing programs, the SCVB works on behalf of stakeholders and partners to bring over 15 million visitors to Sacramento County each year. The impact of these efforts is felt every day from conventions and events that draw thousands to individual families looking for affordable weekend getaways. #### GENERAL MOTORS

General Motors Corp. (NYSE: GM), the world's largest automaker, has been the annual global industry sales leader for 77 years. Founded in 1908, GM today employs about 252,000 people around the world. With global headquarters in Detroit, GM manufactures its cars and trucks in 34 countries. In 2007, nearly 9.37 million GM cars and trucks were sold globally under the following brands: Buick, Cadillac, Chevrolet, GMC, GM Daewoo, Holden, Hummer, Opel, Pontiac, Saab, Saturn, Vauxhall and Wuling. GM's OnStar subsidiary is the industry leader in vehicle safety, security and information services. For more information on GM's global reach and what it is doing to meet the changing transportation needs of each region of the world, go to www.gmnext.com.

LOCKHEED MARTIN CORPORATION

Headquartered in Bethesda, Md., Lockheed Martin employs about 140,000 people worldwide and is principally engaged in the research, design, development, manufacture, integration and sustainment of advanced technology systems, products and services. The Corporation reported 2007 sales of $41.9 billion.

SPACE DAY

The Space Day Program, established and sponsored by Lockheed Martin, was created to broaden the scope of this unique educational initiative. The Space Day Program implements educational activities aimed at strengthening science, math, and technology education. The Space Day Program acts as a platform for collaborative efforts to motivate more students to pursue careers in math, science and engineering.

Lockheed Martin and the Space Day Program are proud to bring you SPACE: A Journey to Our Future, just one of the many channels through which Space Day is celebrated in local communities across the country. www.spaceday.org

NATIONAL SCIENCE TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

The Arlington, VA-based National Science Teachers Association is the largest professional organization in the world promoting excellence and innovation in science teaching and learning for all. NSTA's current membership includes more than 55,000 science teachers, science supervisors, administrators, scientists, business and industry representatives, and others involved in science education.
